

Stephen Little
Reporter

New York Multi-Family Office Names Client Service Director

28 August 2013

Corning, NY-based Market Street Trust Company, the multi-family office, has appointed Christian Girts as director of client service, reporting to Beth Landin, vice president of client and strategic relationships.

Girts will manage high net worth client relationships for both individual and trust accounts. He will work with individual and family group clients on financial and estate planning and advise clients on fiduciary issues.

Prior to joining Market Street, Girts was a financial advisor with Wells Fargo Advisors in Scranton, PA, where he provided comprehensive financial planning and investment advice to families, individuals and small businesses.

He previously served as executive vice president with Ryder Asset Management in Clarks Summit, PA. Before that, Girts spent more than 10 years in investment banking with Thomas Weisel Partners in New York City and San Francisco, CA, and Raymond James Financial in St Petersburg, FL.